

- PetyPlant: Automatic irrigation system with a website and an AI model for plant identification and health status reporting.
- TRAUCK: A web application for managing drivers and routes in a logistics company, ensuring optimal management.
- Smarter Education Digital: An educational application using WebSockets to enable interactive sessions between students and teachers, integrating a real-time knowledge game to enhance learning.